LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY

PRIVATE BILLS

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS

100. (1) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2) Such notice shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a) A printed copy of such Bill;
- (b) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House;
- (c) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a draw-bridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¾ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to incorporate companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated January 5th, 1949.

E. K. DEBECK,
Clerk, Legislative Assembly.

The objects for which the Company is established are:—

(a) To carry on the business of a general tug, towing, and steamship company in any and all of their branches; to purchase, acquire, charter, hire, build, repair, own, equip, manage, and operate ships, tugs, boats, launches, barges, and other vessels of every nature and kind and operated by steam, oil, gasoline, electricity, or any other motive power, with all equipment and furniture or any shares or interest therein, or securities or shares in any company possessed of or interested in any such vessels and to sell, mortgage, lease, alienate, or dispose of the same or any of them as to the Company may seem fit, and to employ the same in pursuance of the Company's business as it may seem expedient:

(b) To carry on the business of timber merchants, sawmill, shingle-mill, pulp-mill, and paper-mill owners and operators, loggers, foresters, lumbermen, and lumber merchants in all or any of their branches; to buy, sell, log, prepare for market, manipulate, import, export, handle, convey, and deal in logs, timber, piles, poles, railroad ties, lumber, pulp, paper, and wood of all kinds, and to manufacture and deal in lumber, timber, shingles, laths, sashes, doors, pulp, paper, and wood products of all kinds:

(c) To purchase or otherwise acquire sawmills, shingle-mills, and mills of any other description for the manufacture of lumber, shingles, railroad ties, pulp, paper, and other timber products:

(d) To acquire all necessary machinery and equipment for such manufacture of lumber, shingles, ties, pulp, paper, and other timber products:

(e) To purchase, lease, take by licence, or otherwise acquire, sell, deal with, use, and dispose of any lands, timber licences or limits, grants, concessions, leases, mill-sites, and any real or personal properties of every description, and to work, develop the resources of, and turn to account the same in such manner as the Company may see fit:

(f) To carry on the business of general merchants, hotel-keepers, boarding and lodging house keepers, restaurateurs, innkeepers, victualers, and provisioners, and to establish shops or stores and to purchase and to vend general merchandise:

(g) To carry on the business of log salvors and to accept compensation, reward, or remuneration for such log salvage; to enter into contracts for the salving of logs, and to sell, vend, or deal in stamped or unstamped and marked or unmarked logs as the law may allow:

(h) To carry on the business of retail and wholesale fishermen, trollers, seiners, and gillnetters and to catch, process, and vend fish of every nature and kind:

(i) To acquire and take over by purchase or otherwise in any way whatsoever all or any part of the stock-in-trade, plant, leases, licences, and all other goods and chattels, personal property, and real property and assets of any person, firm, or corporation or of any business whatsoever and wheresoever carried on, or which may at any time be carried on, either subject to the whole or part of the liabilities thereof respectively, or otherwise as may be agreed, and in either or any of the above cases and in the case of any debt or account owing or payable by the Company at any time to any person, firm, or corporation (including any shareholder or director of the Company) and (or) in the case of any liability, obligation, or contract for or in respect of which the Company is or is about to become liable, to pay for, satisfy, or discharge the same either in money or debentures or bonds or shares of the Company, or partly in money and partly in shares or bonds or debentures of the Company, or partly in money and partly in shares and partly in bonds or debentures of the Company, or partly in shares and partly in bonds or debentures of the Company, or partly in shares and partly in bonds or debentures of the Company, said shares in any or either case to be either partly or fully paid up; such debentures to be secured either by charge on or a deposit of any part or all of the Company's property of any kind whatsoever both present and future including its uncalled capital, or without such charge:

(j) To guarantee and become surety for the performance of any contract, obligation, or undertaking made or to be made by any person, firm, or corporation whatsoever, and to secure the performance thereof by mortgage or charge on all or any of the property or assets of the Company including its unpaid or uncalled capital for the time being, or in any other manner whatsoever. Provided that nothing herein contained shall confer on the Company the powers of an insurance company within the meaning of the "Insurance Act":

(k) To secure the fulfilment of any contracts or engagements entered into by the Company by mortgage or charge on all or any of the property of the Company and its unpaid or uncalled capital for the time being, or in any manner whatsoever:

(l) To register or license the Company in any of the Provinces of Canada or elsewhere wheresoever and to do all necessary things in that behalf:

(m) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire any patents, brevets d'invention, licences, concessions, and the like conferring any exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use, or any secret or other information as to any invention which may seem capable of being used for any of the purposes of the Company, or the acquisition of which may be calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company; and to use, exercise, develop, or grant licences in respect of or otherwise turn to account the property, rights, or information so acquired:

(n) To make loans to the Company's shareholders or directors on such terms as to security and at such rate of interest as the directors of the Company may approve:

(o) To carry on any other business which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with any of the above-specified businesses, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

(p) And it is hereby declared that the word "Company" in this clause shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not incorporated, and whether domiciled in British Columbia or elsewhere, and the intention is that the objects specified in each paragraph of this clause shall, except where otherwise expressed in such paragraph, be independent main objects, and shall be in nowise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company.
